

View this email in your browser

The monthly European Industrial Pharmacists' newsletter • May 2018

Technology & Production

EU Commission's report on the off-label use of pharmaceuticals

The European Commission has published a report on the off-label use of pharmaceuticals, discussing the current framework and possible future options to better regulate the access to medicines for not approved indications

Read more...

Politics & Business

The Joint Declaration on Pharmaceuticals in the Environment

EFPIA and many other industrial and professional associations signed the "Joint Declaration for Pharmaceuticals in the Environment", asking the EU Commission a transparent and collaborative dialogue during the drafting of the new European strategy to prevent risk for the environment

Read more...

Regulatory

Redistribution of the UK centrally authorised product portfolio

The expertise of the different national competent authorities of the European network, the workload associated with each product and its legal basis are the main criteria established by EMA to redistribute the UK centrally authorised product portfolio as part of the preparation to the Brexit

Read more...

Focus on EU's Countries

From Bulgaria: Access to medicines at the center of the Bulgarian presidency of the European Council

Access to medicines is at the center of the Bulgarian presidency of the European Council and related issues have been discussed during the Conference organised in Sofia on March 6th

Read more...

News from EIPG

Monthly update from EIPG – May 2018

Many themes have been discussed at the EIPG General Assembly 2018, that took place in Casablanca, Morocco, on 4-6 May. EIPG Executive Director Jane Nicholson reports on reached achievements and plans for the future

Read more...

© 2018 Tecniche Nuove Spa. All rights reserved
 Tecniche Nuove Spa – Via Eritrea, 21 – 20157 Milano – Italy
 VAT 00753480151

Your e-mail address is used only and exclusively for sending the messages of this service.

Owner of the data treatment is the national Association member of EIPG, sender of this newsletter. Please refer to your Association internet site to update or modify your data treatment consent or wish to be cancelled from this newsletter mailing list.

Forward this newsletter to a friend