

Why Choose a Career in Healthcare Regulatory Affairs?

In collaboration with:

British Pharmaceutical
Students'
Association

ROYAL
PHARMACEUTICAL SOCIETY

Date: 16Apr2018

Time: 17:00-18:00 (UK)

Overview of Webinar

This webinar is aimed at students interested in entering the pharmaceutical industry to pursue a career in Regulatory Affairs. TOPRA (The Organisation for Professionals in Regulatory Affairs) has a Special Interest Network (SPIN) group that is focussed on young professionals and helping them to begin and build a career in Regulatory Affairs. The group is run by a mix of professionals currently working in Regulatory Affairs with varying degrees of experience.

In this webinar, the TOPRA Young Professionals SPIN aims to:

- Provide a brief overview on Regulatory Affairs in the Pharmaceutical Industry
- Understand the career pathways available to young professionals
- Build an awareness of TOPRA and what you as a student can gain by becoming a member

About the Speaker

Jessie Coy is a Regulatory Affairs professional working in the pharmaceutical industry. Her current employment is with Allergan Limited as Director of Regulatory Affairs: Europe Region leading the Gastrointestinal Therapy team. Jessie's experience spans a long career developing regional and country specific regulatory strategies to ensure market approval and continued lifecycle maintenance of products.

To Join the Webinar:

If you have an account set up on the TOPRA website, simply log in and register here:

www.topra.org/regaffairscareer

If this is your first time visiting the TOPRA website, simply create an online account here and then go to the webinar link above.